
2009 CHICAGO BEARS MEDIA GUIDE

CHASE

The official bank of the Bears.

ONE CITY. ONE TEAM.

BRAND PROMISE

The Chicago Bears, a founding franchise of the NFL, uphold the values of the city and its people, uniting them as no other organization can.

WHO WE ARE

There is an indelible connection between the Chicago Bears, the city they call home and the fans who love them. Both Chicago and the Bears were founded on the belief that anything is possible if you're willing to work. And since the day George Halas started the franchise, that's what the Bears have done. Halas was a Chicago man. He was tough, fair and steadfast. He would not settle for second best. His city was second to none. The grit Halas showed while growing up in Chicago has carried through into a tenacity still seen at Soldier Field today. The Chicago spirit—a determined, authentic sensibility—lives inside every Bears player and every Bears fan. To understand the Bears, you have to understand Chicago. And to live in Chicago, you have to love the Bears.

TED PHILLIPS President & CEO

Phillips was named President and Chief Executive Officer on February 10, 1999. He is the fourth person to serve as president in the organization's storied 89-year history following Michael McCaskey, George "Mugs" Halas, Jr., and George S. Halas. Since taking on the top leadership role, Phillips has insisted on attention to detail and smooth execution at every level of the Bears' operation. He has solidified the long term stability of the Club, while staying keenly focused on bringing a 10th championship to the NFL's premier franchise.

Phillips has the Bears back among the NFL's elite through his focus on continuity at the top management levels. Part of his plan in revitalizing both the business and football operations has been to hire high character, intelligent and driven individuals who share common goals and philosophies on how to build a consistent winner.

Drawing from 26 years of experience with the Chicago Bears, Phillips has shown effective leadership skills by empowering his executive staff to create an environment of collective responsibility in running the day-to-day operations of the Club. Phillips is involved in all critical decisions of the Bears and continues to strive to make all aspects of the Bears organization the best in the NFL. Always insisting on a team first attitude, Phillips has surrounded himself with individuals who fit the organization's character, culture and values. The team dynamic was crucial in the Bears return to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years following the 2006 campaign. Phillips' other highlights include hiring the team's first general manager in over 14 years, creating and continuing a strong customer service mentality throughout the organization, returning the Bears training camp to Illinois and presiding over three division championships (2001, 2005 and 2006) after a decade-long drought.

During the 2001 off-season, Phillips hired Jerry Angelo, giving new direction to the Bears football operations. He went on to extend Angelo's contract following the 2003 and 2006 seasons, creating continuity and stability across the front office.

Fans have responded favorably since the Bears training camp returned to the State of Illinois in 2002, turning out in record numbers over the three-week training period on the campus of Olivet Nazarene University in Bourbonnais, IL.

Phillips' leadership was also key in negotiating a new home for the team at Soldier Field. The stadium not only makes the club more financially competitive, it provides the best fans in professional sports, the 4th Phase, with a stadium complete with all the amenities they deserve. The Soldier Field game day experience is second to none and the 4th Phase has been critical in creating a great home field advantage for the team as the Bears continue to maintain their proud history and tradition on Chicago's magnificent lakefront.

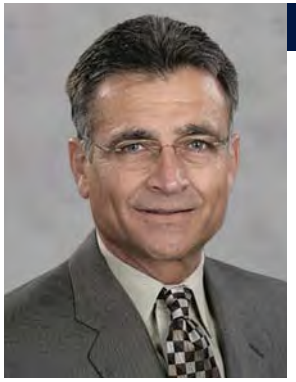
Among the many local and national awards, the Soldier Field project was selected by the New York Times as one of the nation's best architectural buildings in 2003, and Midwest Construction selected Soldier Field as "Overall Project of the Year."

Phillips served as the Bears' Vice President of Operations for six seasons starting in 1993. Recognized for his many years of handling the Bears' contract negotiations and team finances, Phillips currently serves on two League executive committees, whose mission is to analyze the economic, legal and operational aspects of both the salary cap system and the collective bargaining agreement between the NFL and the NFL Players Association. Phillips also serves as a member of the NFL employee benefits committee.

Before becoming Vice President of Operations, Phillips served as the Director of Finance from 1987 to 1993, handling all player contract negotiations and overseeing the club's business operations. Phillips joined the Bears staff on September 28, 1983, as the team's Controller, a position he held for four years.

Prior to joining the Bears, Phillips was employed as an auditor and tax accountant with the international accounting firm Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), from 1979-83. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1979 with a degree in business and accounting. Phillips earned a master of marketing and management degree from the Kellogg Graduate School at Northwestern University in 1989.

Phillips was born in Oneida, N.Y., and grew up in Nashua, N.H. He has three sons, Matthew, Max and Frank.



JERRY ANGELO General Manager

Jerry Angelo has brought a clear vision to Bears football after guiding Chicago to three division championships since joining the team as general manager prior to the 2001 campaign, culminating in the team's 2006 NFC Championship and the organization's first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years. During the 2009 offseason, Angelo orchestrated one of the biggest trades in NFL history, acquiring Pro Bowl QB Jay Cutler from the Denver Broncos. Meanwhile, rewarding core players, building through the draft and managing the salary cap are the cornerstones of Angelo's direction. His plan has created stability in Chicago and generated hope as the Bears continue to build upon a strong nucleus of talent.

Chicago has three division titles over the last eight years, ending an 11-year drought in Angelo's first season in 2001. Angelo's tenure has yielded an overall regular season record of 69-59 (.539), plus a 2-3 postseason mark. Under Angelo's watch, Chicago has registered the third-most regular season wins in the NFC and 11th-most in the NFL over that same time. The Bears 40 wins in the past four seasons are tied for second best in the NFC and tied for sixth best in the NFL.

Angelo's mantra during his tenure in Chicago has been "reward your own" and he has followed through by taking a proactive approach with the team's key players. In 2008, Angelo extended the contracts of 10 players, including Pro Bowlers Lance Briggs, Robbie Gould, Tommie Harris, Devin Hester and Brian Urlacher. Other Pro Bowlers to receive contract extensions since Angelo's arrival include Olin Kreutz and Nathan Vasher and nearly 75 percent of the Bears 2009 roster is signed through the next two seasons (not including the nine 2009 draft picks).

The draft, the primary means of bringing new talent to any NFL team, has been accentuated under Angelo. The efforts of his scouting staff have been highlighted after each of the last four seasons as four Bears players drafted by Angelo have received Pro Bowl selections: Lance Briggs (drafted in 2003), Tommie Harris (2004), Nathan Vasher (2004) and Devin Hester (2006). Briggs has been selected to four straight Pro Bowls (2005-08). Harris was selected to three consecutive Pro Bowls from 2005-07, Hester was named to two straight (2006-07) after becoming Chicago's first rookie Pro Bowl selection since 2000 (Brian Urlacher), while Vasher played in the Pro Bowl following the 2005 season.

After sending the Bears 2009 first-round pick to Denver in the Cutler trade and acquiring additional third- and fifth-round selections for Chicago's second round pick, Angelo and the Bears put an emphasis on athleticism on Day 2 of the 2009 NFL draft with nine selections. Angelo's six drafts prior to 2009 produced an aggregate total of 22 rookie starters combining to make 146 starts: 38 in 2003, 30 in 2004, 33 in 2005, 15 in 2006, 14 in 2007 and 16 in 2008.

Managing the salary cap is a key element to maintaining a team's continuity and providing the ability to sign talent through free agency. Angelo and his staff have excelled in this area allowing the Bears to attract key contributors through the free agent market each off-season of his tenure.

The signing of seven-time Pro Bowl T Orlando Pace highlighted a 2009 offseason which also saw the Bears ink deals with QB Brett Basanez, S Josh Bullocks, G Frank Omiyale, S Glenn Earl and T Kevin Shaffer.

The Bears current roster also bolsters such free agent acquisitions as Anthony Adams (UFA - 2007), Desmond Clark (UFA - 2003) and Roberto Garza (UFA - 2005). Adams, a former second-round pick of San Francisco in 2003, has started 12 of 20 contests played at DT during his two seasons in Chicago. Clark has started 92 of 94 games played at TE as a Bear and leads the team since that time with 222 receptions. Garza has appeared in all 64 contests with 55 starts over the last four seasons, including 48 straight at RG.

Players such as Ruben Brown (LG), Thomas Jones (RB), Ricky Manning, Jr. (CB), Fred Miller (RT), Muhsin Muhammad (WR) and John Tait (LT) were also free agent pick-ups that started for the NFC Champion Bears in 2006.

Free agency has not been the only means used to add talent under Angelo. Adewale Ogunleye (DE) was acquired via trade in 2004 and his 35.5 sacks since that time leads the team. Chicago acquired Brendon Ayanbadejo, who was a Pro Bowl special teams player during the Bears Super Bowl run in 2006, in a trade as well. Angelo's personnel department has found key contributors that were waived by other teams such as Pro Bowler Robbie Gould (K, 2005), Hunter Hillenmeyer (LB, 2003) and Jason McKie (FB, 2003). Angelo has also guided the Bears to success in acquiring talent outside of the NFL, signing Rashied Davis (WR) out of the Arena Football League in 2005.

Continuity in the Bears football operations was solidified in the 2004 off-season when Angelo hired Lovie Smith to be the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history. Angelo and Smith spent five years (1996-2000) together in Tampa Bay, helping build a team that went on to capture a Super Bowl championship in 2002. Angelo created long-term stability for the Bears during the 2007 off-season when he signed Smith to a contract extension through 2011.

In his first season leading the Bears football staff, Angelo helped guide the team to its first division title in 11 years. He was handed the reins of the Chicago Bears football operations on June 12, 2001 as the team's first general manager since 1986 (Jerry Vainisi). Angelo has 40 years of football experience, including 20 as a NFL scout and 22 in the NFC North Division (includes 15 years in former NFC Central Division). He oversees the Bears entire football staff including football operations, personnel and coaching along with all decisions regarding the draft, free agency, trades and the salary cap.

Angelo accepted his current post after spending 14 years overseeing Tampa Bay's scouting department as the Buccaneers' Director of Player Personnel. In Tampa, Angelo helped turn a team that averaged under five wins a season in its first 21 years of existence into a perennial playoff contender, as the Buccaneers averaged almost 10 wins over his last four years with three playoff berths and one NFC Championship appearance (1999). The Youngstown, Ohio, native was a key member in carrying out the philosophy of Tampa's rebuilding process. He contributed to drafting nine Pro Bowlers with the Bucs and was pivotal in recruiting free agents Hardy Nickerson, Jeff Christy and Randall McDaniel, all of whom made trips to Hawaii donning a Bucs uniform. Angelo had a hand in Tampa's 32 Pro Bowl appearances by 14 different players from 1989 to 2000.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay in 1987, Angelo spent five seasons (1982-86) as a regional scout for the New York Giants, including their Super Bowl XXI campaign. He spent 1981 in the Canadian Football League as the Calgary Stampeders linebackers coach. Angelo broke into the NFL as a scout for the Dallas Cowboys in 1980. After playing defensive tackle for three years (1968-70) at Miami of Ohio for coaches Bo Schembechler and Bill Mallory, Angelo graduated with a bachelor's degree in social sciences and a master's in secondary administration while working as a graduate assistant at the university in 1971. He went on to coach eight more years in the collegiate ranks beginning at Colorado State as a part-time defensive line coach (1972) and ending with a five-year stint as the D-line coach at Syracuse (1975-79). In 1973 and 1974, he served as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Tampa before the Spartans cut the football program.

Jerry and his wife, Bernie, have two daughters, Leisa, who is married to Brad Rice, and Sutton.

LOVIE SMITH Head Coach

Lovie Smith enters his sixth season as the head coach of the Chicago Bears with a regular season coaching record of 45-35 (.563). Smith's 45 wins are third most in franchise history, trailing only Hall of Famers George Halas and Mike Ditka. Forty of those 45 regular season wins have come over the previous four seasons, tied for second most in the NFC and sixth most in the NFL during that span. Smith also has a 2-2 postseason record, including an NFC Championship and the Bears first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years (2006), to give him the third-most playoff victories in team history behind the six of both Halas and Ditka.

Smith set forth with three stated goals when he was hired as the 13th head coach in Chicago Bears history on January 15, 2004: end the decade of dominance by the Green Bay Packers over the Bears, capture the NFC North Division title for Chicago and win the Super Bowl. The Bears have won seven of 10 contests against Green Bay during Smith's tenure, contributing to Chicago winning the division in 2005 and 2006. Accomplishing his first two directives prior to leading the Bears to within one win of their second Super Bowl title and tenth overall league championship in just his third season at the helm, Smith agreed to a contract extension on February 28, 2007 that maintains his position with the team through 2011.

Leading Chicago to division titles in 2005 and 2006, Smith joined Ditka as the only coaches in team history to lead the team to consecutive division titles. He is the first coach in team history to lead the Bears to the playoffs in two of his first three seasons.

Smith, the 2005 NFL Coach of the Year, has successfully laid Chicago's foundation for success in just five seasons on the job by establishing his cornerstone of aggressive defensive play. After the Bears defense finished eighth in the Aikman ratings during the 2008 season, Chicago has now ranked in the top-15 in the rankings in each of Smith's five years with the club, including first in 2005 and second in 2006. The Bears defense also finished 11th in the Aikman ratings in Smith's first season with the club in 2004 and 14th in 2007.

Finishing second in the NFL in takeaways in 2008 with 32, the Bears now lead the league with 172 during Smith's tenure as head coach. The Bears are the only team in the NFL to record at least 30 takeaways in each of the last four regular seasons. Over the last five seasons, the Bears have scored 29.3 percent of their points off opponent turnovers, third-highest in the NFL. Chicago is also tied for second in the NFL with 23 red-zone takeaways during Smith's tenure.

During Smith's first five seasons at the helm, Chicago ranks fourth in the NFL having allowed 18.6 points per game and third with 163 total touchdowns allowed. Chicago gave up the fewest points in the NFC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, pacing the entire NFL in Smith's second year with the organization. Under Smith's tutelage the Bears lead the league by allowing the lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (32.2%), the lowest opponent red zone scoring efficiency (77.6%) and forcing the most opponent three-and-out drives (283).

Chicago has found consistency under the even-keeled hand of Smith's direction, fashioning a regular season home record of 25-15 (.625) from 2004-08 while going 20-20 (.500) on the road during that time. The Bears went 6-2 at Soldier Field in 2008 and 3-5 on the road. It was the third time in Smith's five seasons with the club that the Bears won six or more games at home in a single year. Chicago was 6-2 at home in 2006 after going 7-1 in the Windy City during 2005. Chicago was 7-1 on the road in 2006, tied with 1985 and 1986 for the team's best single-season road record since the inception of the 16-game schedule. The Bears were 8-16 (.333) on the road in the three years prior to Smith's arrival. By leading Chicago to records of 11-5 in 2005 and 13-3 in 2006, Smith has guided the Bears to two of their top seven seasons in terms of regular season victories during the era of the 16-game schedule.

Resiliency has also been a hallmark of the Bears throughout Smith's tenure as the team has rallied from a deficit in 26 of their 47 total victories (including playoffs) under his direction. In 2008, the Bears won back-to-back games in overtime after trailing in the fourth quarter for just the second time in team history. During 2007, Chicago won three consecutive road games in which they trailed in the fourth quarter for the first time in team history.

Smith has returned Chicago to its preferred place as a power in the NFC North, fashioning a divisional record of 18-12 (.600) during his time with the Bears. Smith led Chicago to 5-1 intra-divisional records in each of the 2005 and 2006 campaigns, defeating all three opponents at least once in both seasons, a feat last accomplished by the Bears in 1991. Chicago began the 2006 season with three consecutive wins over divisional opponents for the first time in team history. The Bears also won its first 11 games against NFC opponents in 2006 en route to the second-best intra-conference mark in franchise history (11-1).

Registering a career-high 13 wins in 2006 to tie predecessor Dick Jauron for the most victories by a Bears head coach in his third season, Smith led Chicago to home-field advantage in the NFC Playoffs and the team's first NFC Championship since its Super Bowl season of 1985. That gave Chicago 24 regular season wins since 2005, the fourth-highest two-season win total in the 87-season history of the franchise. Smith guided the team to wins in its first seven contests in 2006 to register the fourth-best start to a season in team history while allowing the Bears to join Green Bay and Minnesota as the only teams in NFL history to begin four different seasons with 7-0 records. Chicago's seven consecutive wins to start the season allowed Smith to record the League's third-longest win streak for the second consecutive season.

Smith was named the Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year for 2005 after becoming the fastest head coach in Bears history to lead the team to a division title, doing so in his second campaign while setting a franchise record for victories by a sophomore head coach with an 11-5 record. The Coach of the Year Award was the sixth all-time for a Bears head coach, more than any other team in the NFL. Smith - who won with 24.5 of 50 possible votes - was the fourth head coach in team history to win the award after team founder George S. Halas in 1963 and 1965, Mike Ditka in 1985 and 1988 and Dick Jauron in 2001. Just the third coach in team history to lead the organization to the playoffs in his second season, Smith guided the Bears to their first-ever NFC North Division title in 2005. The Bears also completed their first season sweep of Green Bay since 1991, a feat they repeated in 2007.

Winning just one of their first four games to start the 2005 campaign, Smith rallied the Bears to become just the 20th NFL team to qualify for the postseason after beginning the season 1-3 since the current 12-team playoff system was instituted in 1990. The Bears turned their season around as Smith guided the team to eight consecutive mid-season wins, the third-longest win streak in the NFL in 2005 and the longest by Chicago since the 1985 Super Bowl team won 12 straight to begin the season. In guiding the team to the No. 2 seed in the NFC Playoffs, Smith led a worst-to-first revival in the NFC North division as the Bears six-win improvement from the previous season was tied for the biggest in the NFL in 2005. The dramatic turnaround made Smith one of just three active NFL coaches to have produced a six-game improvement in the second season of his initial stint as a head coach after Jeff Fisher with the Houston Oilers in 1995 and Andy Reid with the Philadelphia Eagles in 2000.

The Bears posted a 5-11 record in 2004 in Smith's first season as head coach as he presided over the youngest team in the NFL while battling through a spate of injuries that robbed the team of the services of several of its most productive players.

Smith came to Chicago with the reputation for being proficient at instituting positive change after he engineered a dramatic turnaround as the defensive coordinator of the Rams from 2001 through 2003. Known for his acumen in teaching and motivating young talent, Smith took on the added responsibility of assistant head coach with the Rams prior to the 2003 season. In his first season as an NFL defensive coordinator with St. Louis in 2001, Smith helped the Rams return to the Super Bowl after missing the playoffs the previous season as his defense allowed fewer points and total yards per game than the previous year. Smith coached on playoff teams in four of his last five campaigns as an assistant and has done so in seven of his 13 NFL seasons overall.

From 2001-03, the Rams ranked third in the NFL in takeaways and fumble recoveries, tied for sixth in sacks, and tied for eighth in interceptions. Smith helped steward St. Louis to shutouts in both 2001 and 2003, the first white-washings by the Rams organization since 1994. St. Louis won 33 games during Smith's tenure with the team, the third-most behind Green Bay and Philadelphia in the NFL during that time. He capped his stint in St. Louis by orchestrating a unit that ranked among the League leaders in takeaways, defensive touchdowns, and sacks in 2003. In that year, St. Louis led the NFL with 46 takeaways while tying for fourth with 24 interceptions and leading the NFL with 22 fumble recoveries. That season's takeaway total is tied with the 1999 Eagles for the third-highest single-season total in the NFL since 1993. St. Louis ranked fourth in the NFL by scoring five defensive touchdowns in 2003 and also posted the fourth-most sacks in the NFL. In 2002, the Rams defense finished tied for fourth in the NFC and tied for fifth in the NFL in fewest touchdowns allowed while ranking sixth in the NFC and eighth in the NFL in third-down efficiency.

Smith guided St. Louis to a defensive resurgence upon taking over in 2001. Inheriting a defense coming off a season in which it ranked 23rd in the NFL in total defense while allowing over 29 points per game, Smith improved the unit to third in the NFL in total defense while permitting only 17.0 points per game. The St. Louis defense made one-year leaps to third from 13th in the NFL in run defense and 10th from 27th in pass defense while improving to a conference-high 14 wins from 10 in 2000. The Rams did that all scored five defensive touchdowns in 2001 while starting seven new players on defense, including two rookies.

Preceding his success in St. Louis, Smith contributed to the revival of Tampa Bay's defense as the Buccaneers linebacker coach from 1996-2000. Tampa's defense hadn't ranked above 20th in the NFL in the four seasons prior to Smith's arrival under head coach Tony Dungy and defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin, but had ranks of 11th in 1996, third in 1997, second in 1998, third in 1999, and ninth in 2000. During the five seasons with Smith on the Bucs staff, the team allowed less than 300 points each year while permitting an average of 16.9 points and 258.8 yards per game. Tampa Bay posted only two defensive touchdowns in Smith's first three years, but improved with two in '99 and a franchise-record six in 2000.

Smith's tutelage has brought out the best in his players throughout his career. As linebackers coach at Tampa Bay, Smith helped Derrick Brooks develop into a perennial Pro Bowl selection and one of the NFL's best linebackers. Brooks made the first career Pro Bowl of his team-record 11 career Pro Bowl appearances in his second season – Smith's first season as his position coach. Also in 1996, Smith helped Hardy Nickerson earn his second career Pro Bowl nod. Brooks and Nickerson made a combined eight all-star appearances under Smith.

Overall, Smith has spent 27 years in coaching at the collegiate and professional levels. He began his coaching career at his hometown high school, Big Sandy High School, in 1980 before moving to Cascia Hall Prep in Tulsa the following year. Two years later, Smith made the jump to the college ranks at his alma mater of Tulsa as linebackers coach, where he stayed through 1986. Smith moved on to coach linebackers at Wisconsin (1987), Arizona State (1988-91), and Kentucky (1992). Smith was the defensive backs coach at Tennessee (1993-94) and Ohio State (1995).

A native of Big Sandy, Texas, Smith led the Big Sandy Wildcats to three consecutive state championships in high school and was all-state three years as an end and linebacker. Smith was a two-time all-America and three-time all-Missouri Conference defensive back at Tulsa.

Lovie and his wife, MaryAnne, have three sons, Mikal, Matthew, and Miles. Lovie is very active in the community and he and his wife have started the Lovie Smith and MaryAnne Smith Foundation which is a scholarship program designed to aid qualified high school students who hale from low socio-economic backgrounds and give them the ability to afford and attend college. In addition, Smith gives much of his time to helping the American Diabetes Association - a foundation near to his heart since his mother suffers from Type-2 diabetes. He participates in ADA sponsored events such as the Tour de Cure Bike Ride, the ADA Care to Cure Gala and their Father's Day Dinner. Smith also purchases 10 tickets for every home game as part of the Bears ticket exchange program and donates them to local charities.

ROD MARINELLI Asst. Head Coach/Defensive Line

Rod Marinelli, in his first season as Chicago's defensive line/assistant head coach, was hired on January 10, 2009.

Marinelli has spent 13 seasons as an NFL coach after spending the last three as head coach of the Detroit Lions and the first 10 as a defensive line coach in Tampa Bay (1996-2005). In his last four seasons with the Buccaneers (2002-05), Marinelli added the duties of assistant head coach as well.

In Marinelli's three seasons in Detroit, the Lions compiled a 10-38 record. The Lions seven wins in 2007 under Marinelli were the most for the franchise since 2000.

The Buccaneers defensive line racked up 328.5 sacks under Marinelli's tutelage, tops in the NFL during that time among defensive fronts. Tampa Bay's defense ranked in the top-10 in total defense in each of Marinelli's last nine seasons with the team. In 2002, Tampa Bay led the NFL in total defense (252.8 yards per game) and points per game allowed (12.3) en route to the Buccaneers Super Bowl XXXVII victory, the first in franchise history.

During his time in Tampa Bay, Marinelli helped coach DT Warren Sapp to seven Pro Bowls and DE Simeon Rice to two. Sapp also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1999 under Marinelli's watch.

Tampa Bay's top-five single-season sack totals all came by defensive lineman under Marinelli's watch. In 2000, Sapp's 16.5 sacks established a team record and stand as the third-most in the NFL among defensive tackles since 1982, when the league officially started recorded the statistic. Rice holds Tampa Bay's next three highest single-season sack totals with 15.5 in 2002, 15.0 in 2003 and 14.0 in 2005. In 2000, Marinelli tutored DE Marcus Jones to 13.0 sacks, to round out the top five.

The Buccaneers established a franchise record with 55.0 sacks in 2000, 45.5 coming from the defensive line. In fact, the top-six single-season sack totals in Tampa Bay franchise history all came while Marinelli served as defensive line coach. From 1999-2003, Marinelli's unit helped set an NFL record as the Buccaneers defense registered a sack in 69 consecutive contests.

Prior to his 10-year tenure in Tampa Bay, Marinelli coached the defensive line at Southern California in 1995. From 1992-94, Marinelli was an assistant head /defensive line coach at Arizona State.

Marinelli started his collegiate coaching career at Utah State in 1976. He spent six seasons as Utah State's defensive line coach before becoming the Aggies' offensive line/special teams coach in 1982. Returning to his home state, Marinelli coached defensive line at the University of California from 1983-89 and added the responsibilities of assistant head coach from 1990-91.

His first coaching experience came as an assistant at his alma mater, Rosemead High School (1973-1975).

Marinelli's collegiate playing career at Utah (1968) and California Lutheran (1970-72) was split by a tour of duty in Vietnam. In 1972, Marinelli earned All-American honors as an offensive tackle at California Lutheran.

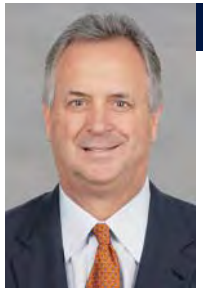
THE LAST HELMETLESS PLAYER

Dick Plasman, an end out of Vanderbilt, is regarded by the Pro Football Hall of Fame as the last player to play the game without a helmet. Plasman played for the Bears from 1937-41 and 1944 and was part of World Championship teams in 1940 and 1941. The NCAA made helmets mandatory in 1939 and the NFL followed shortly thereafter. Plasman never wore a helmet in high school, college or the pros but, after a stint in the armed forces, was required to wear a helmet when he returned to the NFL in 1944.



RON TURNER Offensive Coordinator

Ron Turner is in his ninth year and fifth consecutive as Chicago's offensive coordinator after leading the 2008 Bears to their second top-ten scoring season among franchise annals in the last three years. Previously the Bears offensive coordinator from 1993-96, Turner has also directed six of the top-24 offenses in the Bears 89-year history.

Turner was hired for his second stint with Chicago on January 9, 2005, after eight seasons as the head coach at the University of Illinois. Turner contributed to Chicago's appearance in Super Bowl XLI by coordinating an offense that ranked 15th in the NFL in total yards in 2006. During his earlier four years with the Bears as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach under head coach Dave Wannstedt, Turner guided some of the most prolific offenses in club history.

He has continued that success in his second tour with the club as Chicago scored 375 total points in 2008, tied for seventh-most in franchise history. In 2006, the Bears led the NFC while tying for second in the NFL with 427 points, the second-highest single-season scoring total in team annals.

Turner's offenses have contributed to three of Chicago's top-four passing attacks of all time and six of the top 16. In 2008, Chicago totaled 3,061 net passing yards, 16th most in team annals. In 2007, the Bears finished with 3,362 net passing yards, third-most in team history. A year earlier Chicago totaled the fourth-most net passing yards (3,281) and sixth-most touchdown passes (24) in a season in team history. In 1995, during Turner's first stint with the team, the Bears totaled 3,743 net passing yards, second most in team annals.

In 2008, the Bears passing offense continued to develop under Turner. Chicago quarterbacks threw for over 3,000 net passing yards for the third straight season, a first for the franchise since the 1997-99 campaigns. Chicago has passed for over 3,000 net yards in six of the previous eight seasons under Turner's direction.

Turner's continued revival of Chicago's passing game was led by quarterback Kyle Orton in 2008. In 2008, Orton recorded the sixth-most passing yards in team history (2,972), fourth-most completions (272), fifth-highest completion percentage (58.5) and 13th-highest passer rating (79.6) in 15 starts. Orton's nine starts without an interception in 2008 were tied for fourth-most in the NFL and most by a Bears quarterback since 1995. Orton also threw a team-record 205 consecutive pass attempts without an interception last season.

In 2008, Turner helped oversee the development of rookie running back Matt Fortè. Fortè set Bears rookie records for rushing yards (1,238), yards from scrimmage (1,715) and receptions (63).

Chicago's rushing attack has registered 7,020 yards on the ground during the last four years under Turner. That includes two of the Bears three highest single-season rushing totals in the last 17 years with 2,099 yards in 2005 and 1,918 in 2006. The 2005 season marked the first time since 1990 that Chicago's offense had over 2,000 yards on the ground and just the 17th time since 1965.

In 2008, the Bears topped over 4,600 yards for the third consecutive season after reaching that mark in each year of Turner's first stint with the team.

Chicago topped the 30-point plateau twice in 2008, four times in 2007 and accomplished the feat seven times during the 2006 season, the team's most 30-point games in one campaign since registering eight in 1956. The Bears scored 48 points against the Vikings on October 19, 2008, the most for the club since tallying 48 on December 7, 1986 versus Tampa Bay. The offense has compiled more than 300 total net yards in 25 of their last 48 games after doing so just three times in 2005. Chicago's 38 offensive touchdowns (24 passing, 14 rushing) in 2006 were the unit's highest single-season total since scoring 44 in 1995 -- the third season of Turner's first stint with the team. The Bears were the only NFL team with six players with five or more touchdowns in 2006. The last time Chicago had six players combine for at least five touchdowns was 1948.

The Bears have qualified for the postseason in three of Turner's eight seasons with the team. He has coordinated the team's offense in six of the franchise's last seven playoff contests with Chicago owning a 3-3 record in those games while averaging 25.7 points per game. Turner also holds the distinction of being the offensive coordinator for each of the top two quarterbacks in Bears history in single-season gross passing yardage. Erik Kramer set the franchise record with 3,838 passing yards under Turner in 1995 while Rex Grossman finished 2006 as the runner-up in that category with 3,193 yards.

Imperative to the Bears success in 2005 was Turner's role in grooming Orton, who was a fourth-round draft pick, to compile a 10-5 record as the team's rookie starting quarterback. Chicago featured the eighth-ranked running game in the NFL in 2005. The 2,099 rushing yards totaled by the Bears were the franchise's most in a season since 1990 when the team rushed for 2,436 yards. Chicago also tied for the NFL-lead with 19 runs of 20 or more yards in 2005 after recording just seven such rushing gains in 2004. On the season, the Bears rushed for over 100 yards in 13 of 16 regular season games featuring six individual 100-yard rushing performances.

Turner helped Chicago to a 33-33 overall record while directing the offense in his first stint with the team despite working with a different starting quarterback each season. The Bears team completion percentages in 1994 (61.4%) and 1995 (60.2%) rank as the highest in team history. Chicago's net passing yard total of 3,743 in 1995 ranks second in team annals while the total of 3,185 in 1996 was pushed to sixth in team history by the team's totals from 2006 and 2007. With Erik Kramer at quarterback in 1995, the Bears set a team record for passing yards per game with 233.9 while compiling the fifth-most points in team history with 392. Kramer set club records with 29 touchdown passes and 10 interceptions (least among 16-game starters). The 1995 squad produced the third-most total net yards (5,673) and the second-most first downs (340) in team history. The offense also featured a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in 1995, the only such season in team history.

The 32-season coaching veteran concluded his career as the head coach at Illinois as the school's fourth-winningest coach, going 35-57 while guiding the Illini to a pair of bowl bids highlighted by a Big Ten championship in 2001 and a BCS Bowl bid to the 2002 Nokia Sugar Bowl. The unanimous 2001 Big Ten Coach of the Year presided over three of the top six offenses in Illini history in terms of total yards while four of his eight Illinois squads currently rank in the school's top 11 for scoring, including a school-record 390 points in 2001. Three of the top-six all-time leading rushers at Illinois and three of the school's top-10 all-time leading receivers played during the Turner era. There were over 20 former Illini who played under Turner on NFL rosters at the end of the 2007 season.

Turner was a second-team junior college All-America wide receiver at Diablo Valley Community College and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 2009. He earned a scholarship to the University of the Pacific where he led the Tigers in receiving in 1975 and 1976 and totaled 40 receptions for 666 yards with three touchdowns. Turner began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific before earning his first full-time college job coaching running backs and receivers at Arizona (1978-80). He moved on to be an assistant at Northwestern (1981-82), Pittsburgh (1983-84), Southern California (1985-87), Texas A&M (1988) and Stanford (1989-91) before earning his first head coaching job at San Jose State (1992).

Turner was born in 1953 in Martinez, CA. He and his wife, Wendy, have two sons, Morgan and Cameron, and two daughters, Callan and Madison.

Only the New York Giants (30), Dallas (29), St. Louis (27), Minnesota (25) and Pittsburgh (25) have reached the playoffs more than Chicago. The Bears have an overall playoff record of 16-17 including a 12-7 (.632) record at home and 4-10 (.286) mark on the road.

BOB BABICH Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Bob Babich enters his third season as Chicago's defensive coordinator and his sixth year as an assistant coach with the team after overseeing a defense that finished eighth in the 2008 Aikman Ratings. Babich assumed the responsibility as the Bears defensive coordinator on February 20, 2007 after three seasons as the team's linebackers coach. He resumes the role of coaching linebackers in 2009. The first assistant to join Lovie Smith's inaugural coaching staff, Babich was initially hired by the Bears on January 17, 2004.

Under Babich's guidance, the Bears defense finished second in the NFL with 32 takeaways during the 2008 season. Since Babich joined Chicago's coaching staff in 2004, the Bears have forced 172 takeaways, most in the NFL during that span. Chicago was the only team in the NFL to record at least one takeaway in each contest during the 2008 regular season.

Chicago's defense ranked fifth in the NFL against the run in 2008, allowing just 93.5 yards per game. The 3.4 yards per carry allowed by the Bears last season was third lowest in the league. Babich helped Chicago's defense generate two of the top-eight lowest single-game rushing totals in franchise history during the 2008 season, holding the St. Louis Rams to the fifth-lowest total all-time with 14 yards rushing on 19 carries (11/23) and the Tennessee Titans to the eight-lowest total with 20 yards on 29 carries (11/9). The Bears became one of just two teams since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger to hold an opponent to less than one rushing yard per carry twice in the same season, joining the 2006 Minnesota Vikings.

During Babich's five years with the team, the Bears linebacker corps has been arguably the most productive in the NFL. WLB Lance Briggs was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth consecutive season following 2008, finishing tied for second in the NFL among linebackers with five takeaways. MLB Brian Urlacher, the 2005 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, reached the 100-tackle plateau for the ninth-straight season and added three takeaways, a year after becoming just the third player in franchise history to record five sacks and five interceptions in a single season. Briggs also led the team in tackles for the second time in his six-year career with 136. Either Urlacher or Briggs has led the Bears in tackles in each of Babich's first five seasons with the team, Briggs in 2004 (168) and 2008 (136) and Urlacher in 2005 (171), 2006 (185) and in 2007 (158).

Babich began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with St. Louis where he was hired as the team's linebackers coach to serve under Smith, the Rams defensive coordinator at the time. Babich contributed to that defense improving six ranking positions in points allowed from 2002 while jumping from 22nd in the NFL to first with 46 takeaways, including a League-leading 22 fumble recoveries. St. Louis defenders also ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks in 2003, up from seventh in 2002.

Prior to joining the Rams, Babich spent 19 years as a college coach of which the final six he served as the head coach at North Dakota State University (1997-2002). In his first head coaching job, Babich amassed a 46-22 career mark by posting five winning seasons with two NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bison were 9-2 in the regular season in his first year in 1997 and 12-1 in 2000, reaching the national semifinals before losing to eventual national champion Delta State. Babich's son, Bobby, played for his dad as a freshman at NDSU.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Babich served 12 seasons as an assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level at five different schools, most recently instructing linebackers at Pittsburgh (1994-96). Babich began his career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Tulsa (1984), before being promoted to tight ends coach (1985), assistant offensive line (1986) and strong safeties (1987). It was with the Golden Hurricane that Babich first worked alongside Smith, the school's linebackers coach from 1983-86. From Tulsa, Babich moved on to become an assistant at Wisconsin for two seasons, one as an assistant offensive line coach (1988) and one as tight ends coach (1989). Babich coached linebackers at Bowling Green (1991) and East Carolina (1992-93) before joining the Panthers in 1994.

Babich and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Bobby, one daughter, Janie, daughter in law, Lacey and granddaughter, Lainey Marie.

DAVE TOUB Special Teams Coordinator

Dave Toub enters his sixth season as Chicago's special teams coordinator after his unit finished eighth in the NFL (according to the Dallas Morning News ranking system), ranking in the top third of the league for the fifth straight season after finishing No. 1 overall in 2006 and 2007. Toub has been associated with a unit ranking No. 1 in four of the last eight years.

While an assistant special teams and defensive line coach for Philadelphia from 2001-03, the Eagles won the special teams titles in Toub's first and last seasons there. Toub was hired by the Bears on January 24, 2004. In 2006 and 2007, the Bears became just the second team since the system was created in 1990 to finish with the No. 1 overall ranking in back-to-back seasons. He was voted as the Special Teams Coach of the Year by his NFL coaching peers after the 2006 season. Toub coordinated Chicago to special teams rankings of 11th in 2005 and 10th in his first season with the team in 2004.

The Bears ranked in the top 10 in the league in 13 of the 22 categories used in the ranking system in 2008 and in the top five in 10 areas. Chicago held the top ranking in blocked kicks and punts inside-the-20 and tied for first in extra point percentage and points allowed, finished second in punt coverage, starting point after kickoffs and takeaways.

The 2008 season marked the second-straight year the Bears led the NFL in blocked kicks with four (two punts, one field goal and one extra point). In 2007, they led the league with eight blocked kicks and have an NFL-best 16 since 2004, Toub's first year in Chicago.

Punter Brad Maynard led the NFL in 2008 with a career-high 40 punts inside-the-20, second most in the league since the statistic was first recorded in 1976.

In 2008, the Bears kickoff return unit excelled for the third straight season. Danieal Manning led the NFL with a 29.7 kickoff return average as Chicago average a starting point of the 32-yard line after kickoffs, second highest in the league. A year earlier, the Bears scored an NFL record six kick return touchdowns (four punt and two kickoff) after tying the league mark at five in 2006. Reinforcing the team concept of taking advantage of every opportunity to score, in Toub's tenure the Bears have an NFL-high 15 kick return touchdowns, including the postseason. Since Toub's arrival, the Bears lead the NFL in punt return yards (2,446) and punt return touchdowns (nine) and rank second in punt return average (10.9 ypr).

Chicago's punt coverage unit finished second in the league in 2008 allowing just 5.6 yards per return and ranks second overall since Toub's arrival in 2004 (7.1 ypr). The Bears kickoff coverage unit ranks seventh in the NFL since 2004 allowing just 21.2 yards per return.

In 2007, Toub became the first special teams coach in team history to send multiple players to the Pro Bowl in consecutive seasons as specialist Brendon Ayanabadejo and kick returner Devin Hester each were selected for a second straight season. A year earlier marked the first time in team history a special teams coach tutored three Pro Bowl performers in one season when Ayanabadejo, Hester and kicker Robbie Gould all made their first career all-star appearances.

Hester broke his own NFL record with six kick return touchdowns in 2007 after setting the mark at five in his rookie season of 2006. In 2007, Gould was one field goal short of tying his own franchise mark of 32 fields goal made and became the first player in team history with back-to-back seasons with 30-plus field goals made and first in franchise history to have back-to-back seasons with an 85 percent or higher field goal accuracy.

Under Toub the Bears rewrote the history books by establishing and tying the record for longest-play in NFL history all in a year's span, although the record fell in 2007. Nathan Vasher set the record in 2005 with a 108-yard missed field goal return only to be matched by Hester on the same type of play just 365 days later in 2006. Only eight missed field goals have been returned for touchdowns since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970.

In 2005 Toub's unit ranked second in the NFL in kickoff coverage and 15th in punt coverage. Chicago's kickoff coverage unit ranked 28th in the NFL after three games, but the addition of Gould as a rookie led to improved execution of Toub's coverage plans. The Bears led the NFL by allowing just 18.2 yards per return with Gould kicking off over the final 13 games of the season. The undrafted Penn State product also ranked second among NFL rookies with 82 points while tying for second all-time among Bears rookies with 21 field goals and a .778 conversion percentage.

The Bears special teams ranked 10th in the NFL in Toub's first season with the team highlighted by a League-low opponent net punt average. Toub molded one of the NFL's top kick coverage units despite losing four leading special teams tacklers from the previous season. He developed Adrian Peterson into the team's special teams tackle leader with a career-high 28.

During his stint with Philadelphia (2001-03), Toub helped Eagles special teams coordinator John Harbaugh earn 2001 NFL Special Teams Coach-of-the-Year honors. A ninth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 1985, Toub returned to Philadelphia 16 years later (2001) as the team's assistant special teams/quality control coach.

Toub spent 15 seasons coaching at the college level before making the jump to the NFL, highlighted by 12 years at Missouri (1989-2000). He coached the defensive line for the final three years of his Mizzou stint (1998-2000), spending the previous nine years (1989-98) as the school's head strength coach. Toub helped produce three all-Big 12 linemen from 1998-2000, including Justin Smith, a first-round draft pick by Cincinnati in 2001. In that capacity he was responsible for the training efforts of 18 varsity sports and, in 1998, was named the Big 12 Conference's strength coach of the year. Toub began his coaching career in 1986 at his alma mater, Texas-El Paso, as a graduate assistant. One year later he began a two-year stint as the school's head strength and conditioning coach (1987-88).

A native of Mahopac, N.Y., Toub was selected in the 9th round by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1985 NFL Draft. He also spent time in 1986 with the Los Angeles Rams. His career at UTEP included two all-WAC selections and two Academic all-WAC nominations (1983-84). The two-time team captain was also named the program's most outstanding offensive lineman during his junior and senior seasons. Toub earned his Bachelor of Science and Master's of Education degrees from UTEP.

Toub was born in 1962, in Ossining, NY. He and his wife, Cheryl, have one son, Shane, and one daughter, Nicolette.

ROB BORAS Tight Ends

Rob Boras is in his sixth season as the Bears tight ends coach. Boras was hired on February 11, 2004, following five seasons at UNLV (1999-2003) where he was head coach John Robinson's offensive coordinator for three years.

Under Boras' tutelage, Bears tight ends have accounted for 300 receptions for 3,208 yards and 25 touchdowns. Those totals reflect over 21 percent of the receptions (300 of 1,381) and yardage (3,208 of 15,218) during the previous five seasons while scoring over 30 percent of the team's touchdown receptions (25 of 82) during that time. In 2008, under Boras' leadership, Greg Olsen and Desmond Clark teamed up to haul in 95 receptions, the most catches in a single-season for a Bears tight end unit in franchise history breaking the previous record of 86 established a year earlier. The 95 catches this previous season were fifth-most in the NFL among tight end units.

In 2008, Boras also helped Olsen to 54 receptions, fifth-most for a tight end in single-season franchise history, trailing only four campaigns by Hall of Famer Mike Ditka. Olsen's five touchdown receptions paced the Bears this previous season, the first time since 1982 (Emery Moorehead) that a tight end led the franchise in scoring grabs.

In 2008, Olsen (574) and Clark (367) each had over 300 receiving yards for the second consecutive season, while only one other tight end duo in franchise history, Moorehead and Tim Wrightman in 1985, has accomplished the feat in a single year.

During Boras' tenure with the Rebels, UNLV ranked among the nation's leaders in rushing offense, finishing 15th (2002), 16th (2001) and 13th (2000) in rushing. The Rebels also posted 28 individual 100-yard rushing games in 34 contests by seven different players during a three-year stretch (2000-02). Prior to being named offensive coordinator, Boras coached the Rebels offensive line (1999-2000), a group which allowed only 12 quarterback sacks in 2001 and opened holes for a 1,000-yard rusher in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1973-74.

Boras, a two-sport high school standout at Glenbard West in Glen Ellyn, spent one season as the head coach (1998) of NCAA Division III Benedictine University in Lisle, Ill., after four seasons at the University of Texas (1994-97). During his four years with the Longhorns, Boras served as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line (1994), tight ends coach (1995), a special assistant to the team (1996) and tight ends coach and assistant special teams coordinator (1997). During his four-year stint in Austin, Texas was Big 12 champions (1996), Southwest Conference champions (1995) and earned trips to the Fiesta Bowl (1996), Sugar Bowl (1995) and Sun Bowl (1994).

Prior to joining the Longhorns, Boras began his coaching career with his alma mater, DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind., following his graduation in 1992, spending two seasons as offensive line coach (1992-93).

Boras is married, Amy, and has three children: son, Jackson, and daughters, Abigail and Ainsley.

GILL BYRD Assistant Defensive Backs/Safeties

Gill Byrd, in his fourth season in Chicago, was hired on February 20, 2006. Byrd is entering his second season as the Bears assistant defensive backs/safeties coach. In 2007, he served as the assistant defensive backs coach after holding the position of defensive quality control coach in his first year with the team. He was promoted to his current role on January 16, 2008.

In 2008, under Byrd's guidance, second-year safety Kevin Payne led the Bears with four interceptions and finished second with 129 tackles. Payne was the first Bears safety to lead the team in interceptions since Mike Brown in 2002 and his four interceptions were tied for sixth in the NFL among players at his position. Payne returned those interceptions 147 yards, fourth-most among safeties in 2008. Brown finished the 2008 season with 101 tackles, third-most in his nine-year career with the Bears and the veteran recorded multiple interceptions for the first time since 2005. Byrd also helped in the development of 2008 fifth-round draft pick Craig Steltz, who recorded his first career interception in just his third NFL contest last season.

Byrd came to Chicago from St. Louis where he began his coaching career in 2003. His first two seasons were spent as the Rams defensive assistant before being promoted to assistant secondary coach for the 2005 campaign.

Byrd compiled a stand-out 10-year NFL career playing exclusively with the San Diego Chargers and retired after the 1993 season as the team's all-time leader in interceptions (42) and interception return yards (546), two records which he still owns. Chosen by the Chargers with the 22nd overall pick of the first round in the 1983 NFL Draft, Byrd led all NFL cornerbacks in interceptions for three consecutive seasons (1989-91) and paced the Chargers in four straight years (1988-91). Earning All-NFL honors from The Sporting News in 1989 and Football Digest in 1990, Byrd was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1991 and 1992 seasons. He spent the 1993 season on Injured Reserve with San Diego before retiring. Byrd was inducted into the Chargers Hall of Fame in 1998.

He returned to the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 1999, serving as the team's executive director/player programs and community affairs for two seasons (1999-2001). In that role, Byrd directed the family assistance program of the Packers' players along with guiding players in continuing education, financial education and career internships. He began his coaching career as a volunteer with the Rams in 2003 under then-defensive coordinator Lovie Smith.

Byrd graduated from San Jose State with a degree in finance. He and wife Marilyn have two sons: Gill II, who lettered three years as a defensive back and graduated with a degree in Hotel-Restaurant Tourism from New Mexico State, and Jairus, who lettered for three years at the University of Oregon and was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the second round (42nd overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft.

DARRYL DRAKE Wide Receivers

Darryl Drake is in his sixth season as the Bears wide receivers coach. Drake was hired on February 6, 2004 after coaching 21 seasons at the collegiate level. He came to Chicago after six seasons (1998-2003) as the receivers coach at the University of Texas, adding the title of associate head coach on Mack Brown's Longhorns staff prior to the 2003 season.

Drake's significant experience as a collegiate tutor of wide receivers has served him well during his time with the Bears as he worked with young receiving corps in each of his first five seasons in Chicago. Throughout his tenure he has helped developed such young talent at the receiver position as Devin Hester, Rashied Davis, Mark Bradley, Justin Gage and Bernard Berrian.

In 2008, the Bears passing attack finished with the 12th-highest yardage total in team history (3,229 gross yards). Six different players finished with over 300 receiving yards for just the third time in franchise annals (1983 and 1989). Chicago also had seven players with over 200 receiving yards for just the third time in team history (1986 and 1989). Hester, who was in just his second season as a receiver, led the team with 665 receiving yards on 51 receptions with three touchdowns in 2008. One of those touchdowns went for 65 yards, a career-long for quarterback Kyle Orton and the second-longest scoring reception of Hester's career.

During the Bears Super Bowl run in 2006, the Bears led the NFL by hauling in 95.9-percent (282 of 294) of the catchable balls thrown their way. The 12 drops by Chicago's receivers during the season equaled Buffalo for fewest in the League.

At Texas, Drake guided three different Longhorn wide receivers to first-team all-Big 12 honors and directed three of the most productive receiving duos in UT history. While coaching the only 1,000-yard receivers in the school's history, the Longhorns averaged nearly 10 wins a season. Drake mentored first-round draft pick Roy Williams, who finished his UT career as the leading receiver in school history with 251 receptions for 4,017 yards (16.0 ypr) and 37 touchdowns. He also coached Wayne McGarity, a fourth-round draft pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1999.

Prior to that, Drake spent one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Baylor (1997) after five seasons coaching wide receivers at Georgia (1992-96). During his time with the Bulldogs, Drake tutored some of the top receivers in the SEC: Andre Hastings, Brice Hunter and NFL Pro Bowler Hines Ward.

Drake began his coaching career at Western Kentucky as a graduate assistant coach (1983-84) and spent nine seasons with the Hilltoppers, working with the wide receivers for four seasons (1985-88), the secondary for two years (1989-90) and serving as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 1991. He starred as a wide receiver for WKU in 1975 and during the 1977-78 seasons. He helped the Hilltoppers to an 8-2 record and the OVC Championship as a senior and was a member of their 11-2 OVC Championship squad that played in the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1975.

Following his collegiate career, Drake spent time in professional football with the Washington Redskins (1979), Ottawa Roughriders of the Canadian Football League (1981) and Cincinnati Bengals (1983). The Louisville, Ky., native earned his bachelor's (1980) and master's (1984) from Western Kentucky.

Drake was an all-state performer in football and an All-American in both track and field and basketball at Flaget High School in Louisville. He and his wife, Sheila, have three daughters, Shanice, Felisha and Marian.

PEP HAMILTON Quarterbacks

Pep Hamilton, in his third season as the Bears quarterbacks coach, was hired on March 5, 2007. A veteran of six seasons as an NFL assistant with a pair of prior organizations, Hamilton came to Chicago after one season as the offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach of the San Francisco 49ers.

In his second season with the Bears, Hamilton tutored quarterback Kyle Orton to the fifth highest completion percentage in team history (58.5, 272 of 465, minimum 300 attempts). Orton also finished sixth in franchise annals in passing yards (2,972), tied for ninth in touchdown-to-interception ratio (1.5, 18 touchdowns and 12 interceptions) and 13th in passer rating (79.6). Under Hamilton's direction, Orton threw a string of 205 passes without an interception during the 2008 season, the longest streak in franchise history. Orton did not throw an interception in nine of his 15 starts last year, tied for fourth most in the NFL.

A year earlier, Orton, Rex Grossman and Brian Griese led a passing attack that finished with the third-most gross passing yards in team history (3,701).

In his lone season in San Francisco, Hamilton helped young quarterback Alex Smith make strides in 2006. Smith became the first signal-caller in team history to take every snap from center over an entire campaign while completing 58.1 percent of his passes for 2,890 yards with 16 touchdowns, 16 interceptions and a 74.8 passer rating.

Before joining the 49ers, Hamilton spent three seasons with the New York Jets, joining the team as offensive quality control coach in 2003. In 2004, he was elevated to offensive assistant/quarterbacks coach where he was charged with the responsibility of acclimating free agent QB Quincy Carter to the Jets offensive system. With Hamilton's tutelage, Carter led New York to a 2-1 record in three starts. Hamilton was named the team's wide receivers coach for the 2005 season, helping Laveranues Coles catch 73 passes for 845 yards with five touchdowns to rank 14th among AFC receivers. Hamilton got his first NFL experience working as a summer coaching intern with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2000 and the Washington Redskins in 2001 and a pro personnel intern with the Baltimore Ravens during the summer of 2002.

The former college quarterback began his coaching career with four seasons at his alma mater of Howard University. He was the Bison's quarterbacks coach from 1997-2001 while as serving as the team's offensive coordinator from 1999-2001.

A quarterback at Howard from 1993-96, Hamilton earned the team's scholar-athlete award two consecutive years (1995-96) before graduating with a business degree in 1997. Hamilton and his wife have one son and two daughters.

HARRY HIESTAND Offensive Line

Harry Hiestand, in his fifth season as Chicago's offensive line coach, was hired on January 11, 2005. Hiestand spent the previous eight seasons serving in the same capacity at the University of Illinois under current Bears offensive coordinator Ron Turner when he was the head coach of the Illini. A 26-year coaching veteran, Hiestand has been coaching offensive linemen and tight ends since 1982 and was the offensive line coach for 16 consecutive seasons at three Division I universities.

The Bears were one of six teams to have the same five offensive linemen start all 16 games in 2008 (C Olin Kreutz, LG Josh Beekman, RG Roberto Garza, LT John St. Clair and RT John Tait), marking the first time since 2001 that Chicago had the same five players start every contest along the line.

The offensive line has been the most experienced unit on the Bears roster over the last couple of years, led by 11-year veteran and six-time Pro Bowl C Olin Kreutz, who enters the 2009 season having started a team-high 102 consecutive games.

In 2008, Chicago's offense attempted 557 pass plays and absorbed 29 sacks. In 2006, the Bears attempted 539 pass plays and allowed just 25 sacks, the lowest total given up by the team since allowing 17 in 2001, as Chicago went on to win the 2006 NFC Championship leading to the organization's first Super Bowl appearance in 21 years.

During his tenure at Illinois, Hiestand tutored 12 all-Big Ten selections on the offensive line. Every senior starting offensive linemen in Hiestand's first seven years with the Illini was signed to an NFL contract.

Hiestand joined Illinois in 1997 after spending three seasons as the offensive line coach at Missouri (1994-96), helping the Tigers produce the ninth-leading rushing attack in the NCAA with a rushing average of 250.7 yards per game in 1996. Prior to his stint at Missouri, Hiestand coached the offensive line at Cincinnati for five seasons (1989-93), where he was also the run-game coordinator in 1992 and offensive coordinator in 1993. Hiestand also coached tight ends and assisted with the offensive line at Toledo in 1988, was a graduate assistant at Southern California in 1987 and tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at Pennsylvania in 1986.

The Malvern, Pa., native began coaching at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg University, after an injury ended his playing. Hiestand played two years at Springfield College before transferring to East Stroudsburg in the Pocono's of Pennsylvania. Of his seven previous coaching stops, Hiestand has been a part of a league championship team at five of those: East Stroudsburg (1982-83), Penn (1986), USC (1987), Cincinnati (1993) and Illinois (2001). He was also on the Trojan staff for the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Hiestand earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 1983. He and his wife, Terri, have three sons, Michael, Matthew and Mark, and one daughter, Sarah.

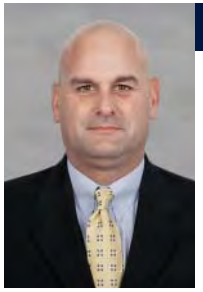
YOUTH FOR LIFE: REMEMBERING WALTER PAYTON

In 2001, four Chicago area teens joined forces to create Youth for Life: Remembering Walter Payton, an organ donation awareness program dedicated to the legendary Chicago Bears running back who passed away in 1999 while awaiting a liver transplant. Erin Kinsella, John McCaskey and Mark Pendleton teamed up with Walter's daughter, Brittney, in founding this campaign which provides the facts about organ and tissue donation to high school students preparing to apply for their driver's license.

Youth for Life is a member organization of the Illinois Coalition on Donation. Through school assemblies, the Youth for Life program provides teenagers with the facts, as well as information on when and how to register as an organ donor. It encourages them to make the right choice — the choice for life.



JON HOKE Defensive Backs

Jon Hoke, in his first season as Chicago's defensive backs coach, was hired on January 13, 2009.

The 26-year coaching veteran spent the previous seven seasons (2002-08) as the Houston Texans defensive backs coach after spending three seasons (1999-2001) at the University of Florida as the Gators defensive coordinator/secondary coach. He added the title of assistant head coach in his final two seasons (2000-01) at Florida.

During his time with the Texans, Houston defensive backs accounted for 82.8 percent (72 of 87) of the teams' interceptions, the seventh-highest percentage in the NFL during that span and third-highest in the AFC.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, Hoke tutored the defensive backs at Missouri for five seasons (1994-98) after spending three years in the same capacity at Kent State (1989-93), adding the title of defensive coordinator in his final season with the Golden Flashes.

Hoke started coaching at Bowling Green in 1983 as the Falcons' secondary/special teams coach. He spent four seasons in Bowling Green before coaching the defensive backs/special teams at San Diego State from 1987-88.

A four-year letterman at Ball State (1976-79), Hoke earned all-MAC honors as a defensive back. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education. Hoke played 11 games for the Chicago Bears in 1980, recording seven tackles.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Hoke and his wife, Jody, have four children: Mallory, Kyle and twins Kendall and Carly.

THE UNIFORM

The Chicago Bears, originally called the Decatur Staleys when founded in 1920, wore blue jerseys with tan colored vertical striping in their inaugural season. The vertical stripes were actually strips of leather sewn onto the uniform to help the ball carrier secure the ball.

In 1935 the Bears introduced an orange jersey with black arm stripes and black helmet and by 1958 were wearing the familiar navy blue with burnt orange. The Bears unique "rounded" number style on the uniforms and numbers on the sides of the sleeves of the jerseys date back to the 50's. The Bears trademark 'C' logo appeared on helmets in 1962 and its use continues through present day although the mark has changed from white to orange and the shape has changed slightly. After 11 years, the white 'C' logo is colored orange with white trim in 1973 and still has the same look today. The initials GSH were added to the left sleeve in 1984 in honor of the late 'Papa Bear' George S. Halas, who passed away Oct. 31, 1983. The uniform has had a very consistent look from the 1970's with the exception of blue pants with the white jersey introduced in 1984 as a road uniform. On Oct. 7, 2002 on a Monday Night Football game against Green Bay, the Bears wore their traditional home blue jerseys with the blue pants for the first time. On Nov. 25, 2004, for a Thanksgiving game at Dallas, the Bears wore a throwback orange jersey; then, on Nov. 13, 2005, introduced a new-look orange third jersey and have wore that for one game each season since.

TIM SPENCER Running Backs

Tim Spencer, in his sixth season as the Bears running backs coach, was named to his current position on January 27, 2004. Spencer came to the NFL following 10 seasons of tutoring the ball carriers at his alma mater of the Ohio State University.

Since Spencer has presided at his current position, Bears running backs have led a balanced attack on the ground and through the air. Since 2004, Chicago RBs rank 13th in the NFL with 399 receptions for 2,758 yards. The Bears 8,644 rushing yards over that time ranks tied for 20th in the league.

In 2008, Spencer tutored Matt Fortè who broke franchise rookie records in rushing yards (1,238), yards from scrimmage (1,715) and receptions (63). Fortè finished seventh overall in the NFL in rushing yards in 2008, third in yards from scrimmage and first among running backs in receptions. His 86 total first downs were also tied for the NFL lead. Under Spencer's guidance, Fortè became one of just eight rookies in NFL history to rush for 1,000-plus yards and record 50-plus receptions and one of eight rookies since 1970 to lead their respective team in rushing yards and receptions. Fortè's 63 receptions broke the Bears single-season record by a running back, which was established by Thomas Jones in 2004, Spencer's first season in Chicago

In 2007, Spencer's unit finished fifth in the NFL with 693 receiving yards on 86 receptions and the Bears were one of 12 teams in the NFL that had two players rush for 500 or more yards. Adrian Peterson led the way with 420 receiving yards, fourth-most among NFL running backs, on 51 receptions.

In 2006, Spencer's unit fell less than 100 yards shy of reaching the 2,000 rushing yard mark as a team after topping that milestone in 2005 for the first time in 15 seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Spencer was the position coach for Eddie George during his Heisman Trophy-winning season of 1995 and during the Buckeyes national championship season in 2002. He was part of three Big Ten championship teams (1996, 1998, 2003) as a coach at OSU and was part of an offensive attack which led the Big Ten in scoring offense and total offense three of his 10 seasons (1995, 1996, 1998). Including George (twice), he produced 1,000-yard rushers six times during his tenure (Pepe Pearson, Michael Wiley, Jonathan Wells, Maurice Clarett) including George's school single-season record of 1,927 yards in 1995.

A running back at Ohio State from 1979-1982, Spencer was the second player taken in the 1983 USFL draft where he played one year each for Chicago (1983), Arizona (1984) and Memphis (1985) before signing with the San Diego Chargers (1985-90) where he was a four-year starter at fullback. He returned to Ohio State in 1993 after retiring from professional football to finish his degree requirements and was named to John Cooper's coaching staff prior to the 1994 season.

The Buckeyes' starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback his final two years and led the team in rushing both of those seasons. He closed out his career with 3,553 yards rushing and still ranks third on OSU's all-time rushing list, trailing only Heisman Trophy winners Archie Griffin (5,589) and George (3,768). Spencer was the Buckeyes' co-captain and MVP as a senior. He also was MVP of the 1982 Holiday Bowl, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the Buckeyes' 47-17 win over Brigham Young. During his four years at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 38-10 and played in four bowl games, including the 1980 Rose Bowl.

Spencer and his wife, Gilda, have two sons, Cole and Evan.

INSTANT REPLAY'S PLAYERS

The instant replay system reinstated in 1999 uses digital computer technology, not video tape as was employed from 1986-91. The system affords quicker access to replays. The system is initiated by challenges from the head coaches (two per game) in all but the final two minutes of each half, and by the replay official in the booth in the final two minutes and overtime. The booth operates under a "two-minute" mode the entire game, lining up replays of every play in case a challenge is issued.

The system begins with a "live feed" from the network television control truck covering the game. The technician controls the monitor, cuing the live play and replay screens during action. His monitor can accommodate six replay angles of a single play. The replay assistant decides which replays will be relayed to the field monitor and whether an official's time out be called for a review in the final two minutes of a half or overtime. Replay assistants will have an NFL or college football officiating background and is the only direct link to the referee on the field. The video operator, at the instruction of the replay assistant, controls which replays that the on-field referee will view. He can control the speed of the digital video playback. The communicator will advise the replay assistant–who is busy viewing the monitor–before the next play has started, negating the possibility of a replay. He will also report to the replay assistant if an official ruling (e.g., holding, illegal procedure, etc.) has been made on the field, eliminating the need for a replay.

AIKMAN EFFICIENCY RATINGS

Established in 1995, the Aikman Efficiency Ratings measure offensive and defensive performance using a combination of seven key statistics identified by Troy Aikman, and then measured against league norms (and extremes). An offense or defense performing exactly at league norms in all categories will achieve a score of 75 while an exceptional unit would score 90 or more. Each unit starts with a base of 50 points and then has points added (or in two cases subtracted) to build the final ranking.

The seven categories and their "maximum values" are:

Yards per rush: 5 | Yards per pass play: 5 | Total First Downs: 5

Third Down conversions: 5 | Points: 10 (points by return subtracted) | Turnovers: 10

Red Zone Efficiency: 10 (measured as percentage of possible points)

NAMING THE BEARS

George Halas originally named the team the Decatur Staleys after A.E. Staley, a starch manufacturer and enthusiastic sports fan who sponsored a semi-pro team and commissioned Halas to organize the new squad.

One year later, trying to match the profitability of Chicago's baseball games, Staley asked Halas if he would take the team off Staley's hands and move it to Chicago for $5,000, while keeping the name Staleys for another year. With the help of legendary baseball pioneer Bill Veeck, Sr. and William Wrigley, Halas soon acquired a lease to play at Wrigley Field.

When Halas' obligation to Staley terminated in 1922, he considered re-naming the team the Chicago Cubs out of respect for Veeck and Wrigley who, according to Halas in his biography, "had been such a great help."

But, as Halas continued, "I noted football players are much bigger players than baseball players, so if baseball players are cubs, then football players must be bears!"

On January 28, 1922, the franchise was re-named the Chicago Bears.

The team colors have always been blue and orange after those of Halas' alma mater, the University of Illinois. Halas lettered in football, basketball, and baseball for the Fighting Illini, and is honored as one of U of I's most distinguished alumni in the Illini Union in Urbana-Champaign.

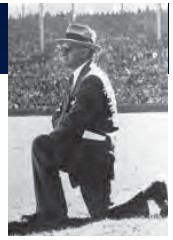
HISTORY

GEORGE S. HALAS

February 2, 1895 – October 31, 1983



Leading the Chicago Bears for more than a half-century, George S. Halas, the team's founder and head coach for 40 years, was one of the most enduring personalities in sports history. Halas was active with the Bears starting in 1920 when he founded the team as the Decatur Staleys.

Halas was born and raised on Chicago's west side and prepped at Crane Tech High School before attending the University of Illinois. In Champaign, he earned a B.S. degree while lettering in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1918, Halas joined the Navy for the first of two tours of duty. He was named Player of the Game in the 1919 Rose Bowl, playing end on the Great Lakes team that beat the Marines 17-0. A commander when he left active duty in 1946, Halas retired as a captain in the Naval Reserve. He was also awarded the Distinguished Citizens Award–the highest honor the Navy can bestow on a civilian.

After leaving the Navy, Halas played right field for the New York Yankees, but a hip injury shortened his baseball career. Halas went to work for a Decatur (IL) corn products firm owned by an enthusiastic sports fan, Mr. A.E. Staley, who sponsored a semi-pro baseball team, and later commissioned Halas to organize an independent football team.

PRO CAREER: As a player, Halas set an NFL record (which stood 49 years until 1972) when he took a Jim Thorpe fumble 98 yards for a TD in a 26-0 win over the Oorang Indians at Wrigley Field (11/4/23). He played end for the Bears from 1920-29 and was named to the NFL all-pro squad of the 1920s.

PRO COACHING CAREER: Three times Halas interrupted his coaching activities by his own volition. He first turned over the leadership to Ralph Jones from 1930 through 1932. In 1942 when he left for the Navy, Luke Johnsos and Heartley "Hunk" Anderson shared head coaching responsibilities until '45. John "Paddy" Driscoll coached in 1956-57. Coincidentally, in '33 and again in '46 when Halas resumed coaching, his Bears won world championships.

During the 1940s, his teams reached the height of their power with four straight Western Conference titles; three world championships; a fantastic four-season record (including pre-season games) of 62-7-1 (.899); scored 2,164 points and allowed just 842. The 1940 team, which defeated the Washington Redskins 73-0 for the World Championship, was voted the greatest professional team of all-time by the National Academy of Sports Editors in 1963.

Resuming coaching in 1958, Halas needed five years to develop another champion, when in 1963 the Bears won their eighth championship. The Sporting News, AP, and UPI named him Coach of the Year after the 1963 and 1965 seasons. Halas retired from coaching on May 27, 1968, with a career record of 324-151-31. His win total was the best in NFL history until Don Shula broke the mark in 1993. Halas is a charter member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

GEORGE S. HALAS, JR.

September 4, 1925 – December 16, 1979

George S. "Mugs" Halas was an integral part of the Bears before his untimely death in 1979. The son of pro football founder George S. Halas, Mugs spent 30 years in pro football. He joined the Bears' front office in 1950, was named treasurer in 1953, and became president of the club in 1963. In his first season as president, the Bears were NFL champions. Mugs was the second of just four presidents in the franchise's 87-year history. He succeeded his father, George S. Halas, and was followed by Michael McCaskey and current president Ted Phillips. His numerous contributions on a league-level included membership on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Mugs learned football at a young age, serving as a ball boy while growing up. He earned a business degree from Loyola in 1949, before entering pro football on a full-time basis. Mugs is remembered for his love and devotion to the game.

McCaskey married Halas' only daughter, Virginia, in 1943 and joined the team at Halas' request in 1967.

McCaskey was a popular figure within the NFL and was referred to by many as the conscience of the League, as well as a sounding board for many of its leaders. FRANCHISE FIRST Bears K Robbie Gould had 119 points in 2008, the third consecutive season he recorded 100-plus points, becoming the first player in franchise history to accomplish the feat. Gould had 143 points in 2006 and 126 in 2007.

Gould's three 100-point seasons overall are second most in franchise history to Kevin Butler's five (1985, 1986, 1990, 1993 and 1995).

Paul Edinger is the only other player in Bears history with multiple 100-point seasons (2001 and 2003).

ROOKIE RUSHING AND RECEIVING LEADER

Rookie running back Matt Forté led the Bears in both rushing yards (1,238) and receptions (63) in 2008.

Forté became just the eighth rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to lead his respective team in both rushing yards and receptions and the first since Warrick Dunn of Tampa Bay in 1997.

Forté also joins Marshall Faulk (Indianapolis in 1994) as the only rookies since 1970 to rush for over 1,000 yards and lead their team in receptions.

ROOKIE RECORD

RB Matt Forté's 63 catches in 2008 broke both the team's record for receptions by a rookie (TE Mike Ditka, 56 in 1961) and the single-season receptions record among Bears running backs (Thomas Jones, 56 in 2004).

Forté finished with a team-high 63 receptions for 477 yards and four touchdowns last season. The 63 receptions were tops among NFL backs in 2008. They were also second among all rookies regardless of position, trailing only the 91 by Broncos WR Eddie Royal.

Forté became the first Bears rookie to lead the team in receptions since Ditka in 1961 and the first Chicago running back to lead the team in receptions since Jones in 2004.

40 RUSHES VS. 40 PASSES

Over the past 26 seasons, the Bears have a 61-2 record when rushing 40 or more times in a single game. Chicago has won 45 straight 40-rush games dating back to 1984 through its most recent, a 35-7 win over Green Bay on Dec. 23, 2007 (44 rushes for 136 yards).

During the same 26-season period, the Bears are 15-43 when throwing 40 or more passes in one game. The Bears had a 1-1 record with 40 or more passes in 2008, losing to Atlanta (43 attempts) while beating New Orleans in overtime (41 attempts).

FORMULA FOR QB RATING

"Quarterback Rating" is the most complicated of the NFL's official statistics. The formula uses five factors: attempts, completions, gross yardage, touchdowns and interceptions. It was designed so that a score of 100 would be great with 90 being very good, 80 being good – similar to an A-B-C grading scale. A passer rating of 158.3 is considered perfect.

Here's the formula which works when entered into Microsoft Excel. Be careful, there are 196 characters which must be typed perfectly, without any spaces, in order for everything to calculate correctly:

A1=ATTEMPTS; B1=COMPLETIONS; C1=GROSS YARDS; D1=TOUCHDOWNS; E1=INTERCEPTIONS

This is a list of the jersey numbers and the players who wore them in the regular season (not pre-season or training camp!). The Bears are trying to update this to represent the years they wore the number (as opposed to the years they played with the Bears). If you have information, please write to: Bears PR, 1000 Football Drive, Lake Forest, IL 60045. Special thanks to Dallas Himm and Bob Wolf who helped compile this list.

YEAR-BY-YEAR TAKEAWAYS/GIVEAWAYS

The Bears are one of only four teams (Cincinnati, Detroit, Minnesota) to finish in the top 10 in the NFL in takeaways in each of the past three seasons, finishing eighth in 2007, first in 2006 and sixth in 2005. Since Lovie Smith took over as head coach of the Bears in 2004, Chicago ranks second in the League with 140 takeaways. During that time the Bears lead the NFL in opponent fumble recoveries (59) and rank second in interceptions (81).

INTERNATIONAL GAMES

The Bears were participants in the NFL's first overseas game when they met the Dallas Cowboys in London in 1986. Since that contest, the American Bowl has expanded to many international sites including Tokyo, Barcelona, Montreal, Sydney and Mexico City. The Bears' fourth trip abroad took them to Dublin, Ireland's Croke Park on July 27, 1997, to face the Pittsburgh Steelers.

WRIGLEY RECORD

The Bears' all-time record at Wrigley Field stands at 221-89-22, a total of 332 games, 330 as the home team. (Two of those victories came with the Bears as the "road" team: twice in 1920 against the Chicago Tigers). The 330 Bears' home games at Wrigley Field appears to be a National Football League record, though unofficial. The Bears-Wrigley connection edges out Cleveland's Municipal Stadium as host for 324 home games of the Cleveland Browns, from 1950 through 1995. As the reincarnation of the Cleveland Browns play in a new stadium since their return in 1999, the Bears-Wrigley "record" appears safe.

In fact, Wrigley Field has hosted a total of 342 NFL games: 330 Bears home games, five home games of the Chicago Tigers in 1920, and seven home games of the Chicago Cardinals in 1931 and 1932. Besides the Browns' 324 home games at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, the Cleveland Indians played two home games there in 1931, and the Cleveland Rams played sixteen home contests in 1937 and 1939-1941. Municipal Stadium appears to have hosted a total of 342 total NFL games—same as Wrigley Field. CHICAGO BEARS MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Bears President & CEO Ted Phillips led the franchise to one of the team's greatest off-field achievements with the construction of the lakefront improvement plan which included the new football stadium within the confines of historic Soldier Field. The Bears are entering their sixth season in the new stadium, playing the inaugural campaign in 2003. The aggresive construction schedule lasted just 20 months-from the Bears last home game of the 2001 season (vs. PHI, Jan. 19, 2002) until re-opening against Green Bay on Sept. 29, 2003. The project earned many honors for design excellence and was named Midwest Construction magazine's overall Project of the Year in 2003.

- November, 2000-Bears President and CEO Ted Phillips and his team of experts answer questions and concerns of the Illinois General Assembly at the State Capitol. After three days of gathering support, the Illinois House and Senate passed Bill 1284 on Nov. 30, 2000, authorizing the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority to issue approximately $406 million in bonds to help finance the $630 million project.
  The debt service on the bonds were paid from the surplus and projected growth of the existing two percent Chicago local hotel tax plus a local distributive tax and state hotel tax subsidy. The remaining $200 million was contributed by the Chicago Bears, including a $100 million loan from the National Football League.

- Nov. 15, 2000-The City of Chicago's Lakefront Improvement Plan was announced publicly by Mayor Richard M. Daley.
  The project replaced parking lots with 17 acres of new parkland, built an underground parking structure to serve the Museum Campus and Soldier Field, created easier access to the Museum Campus and added other amenities giving Chicagoans and tourists the ability to enjoy the lakefront year-round.

- Jan. 5, 2001-Governor George Ryan signed House Bill 1284, designed to help fund a new stadium and enhance Chicago's lakefront.

The following is a number of facts concerning different elements of the Soldier Field project and the Lakefront Initiative:

LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENTS

The project created approximately 17 acres of additional waterfront parkland for public enjoyment. This green space was programmed for year-round public uses such as a sledding hill, winter garden, a terraced park, an area for outdoor museum exhibits and other features.

The year-round parking facility created 2,500 new underground parking spaces immediately adjacent to the Field Museum and Shedd Aquarium and 3,100 outdoor spaces between the stadium and McCormick Place to ensure Chicago's great tailgating tradition continues.

SOLDIER FIELD IMPROVEMENTS

The stadium features increased sideline seating from 40% of seats to over 60%, an increased number of new and improved restrooms (over 1,000 restroom fixtures) plus more variety and access at over 350 concession points of sale, three-level United Club lounge, a Bears Ring of Honor throughout the mezzanine level, a Bears Den gallery depicting historical events from Soldier Field's past and a bas-relief of George Halas.

Above and beyond the Bears games, the new Soldier Field is capable of hosting an increasing number of athletic events, prime concerts, and large civic, cultural and educational gatherings. The unique design allows for easy stage setup and take down, along with a field that can accommodate international soccer events.

FUNDING THE LAKEFRONT IMPROVEMENT PLAN

The Bears made a $224 million contribution to this project, pay annual rent of $5.7 million and accepted the cost overrun risks on the project. The entire cost of the Lakefront Project ($630 million) was raised without asking for taxpayers' money. The plan was supported through a local City of Chicago hotel tax which is already in existence. There was no extension or increase of any taxes and the hotel tax was principally paid by visitors and tourists.

PRESERVING HISTORY

The historic colonnades and historic South Wall remained untouched as the new stadium was built within the existing exterior of Soldier Field. The Memorial Water Wall honors all soldiers who have served in the United States Armed Forces. The Wall serves as an educational piece for families and visitors of the museum campus. A Doughboy statue was erected at the entrance of Gate O and the south concourse features a Medal of Honor tribute.

The Chicago Bears would like to thank our Hall of Fame Partners for their efforts toward making the fan experience exciting for all:

Following 31 seasons of football along the shores of Lake Michigan (pictured, left), the Bears took a brief one-year hiatus from Soldier Field in 2002, playing home games at Memorial Stadium in Champaign so construction of the new Soldier Field (right) could be completed. The first game in the new stadium was Sept. 29, 2003 against division rival Green Bay. The Bears first season at the old venue was in 1971 after spending 50 seasons at Wrigley Field. Soldier Field was opened in 1924 as a 45,000-seat Municipal Grant Park Stadium. The first football game played on its field was November 22, 1924, as a capacity crowd watched Notre Dame edge Northwestern, 13-6.

It hosted the first boxing event which drew a gate of over $2.5 million (Dempsey-Tunney, 1927), the first ski meet held in a stadium, and the all-time largest football crowd (123,000). The largest crowd for any event in Soldier Field was 260,000 on Sept. 8, 1954, for the Catholic Church's Marian Year Tribute.

The 100,000-seat stadium was dedicated November 27, 1926, with Army battling Navy to a 21-21 tie. The all-time collegiate attendance record of 123,000 plus was established Nov. 26, 1927 as Notre Dame beat Southern Cal 7-6. In the first professional game at the then-mammoth stadium, the Bears defeated the Chicago Cardinals 10-0 on November 11, 1926.

Plans for the stadium started in 1919 as a memorial to the soldiers of WWI. Soldier Field stood on 10,000 pile foundations driving an average depth of 62.5 feet through fill that replaced the lake waters. The new stadium continues to be owned, maintained and operated by the Chicago Park District.

Other stadium notes since the Bears moved to Soldier Field:

1971 – September 19, Chicago defeats the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-15 before capacity crowd of 55,701 in the Bears' first game since moving from Wrigley.
1979 – The stadium undergoes major reconstruction and renovation prior to the season including new lighting, playing surface, and locker rooms; rebuilding of seating area (new chairbacks, armrests, seats); and improvement of sightlines.
1982 – Additional rebuilding of seating areas was completed as well as new concourses with more restrooms and concession areas. A new press box, 60 deluxe skyboxes, and a new scoreboard were also built. Capacity is increased to 66,030.
1988 – Surface was changed from artificial turf to natural grass, and 56 skyboxes were added along south rim (increasing the total to 116). Capacity is increased to 66,946.
1992 – Four seats are added increasing the capacity to 66,950.
1994 – The Park District spends millions to refurbish the stadium for the World Cup soccer tournament. Capacity is reduced by six to 66,944.
2000 – Mayor Daley announces Lakefront Redevelopment Project (11/15).
2001 – Project receives state and city approval.
2002 – Demolition begins on stadium immediately following playoff game (1/19).
2003 – Bears return to Soldier Field with Monday night re-opening on September 29 against Green Bay. Capacity is set at 61,500, over 5,000 fewer seats than the old stadium and the second smallest venue in the NFL.

Located on the west side of the stadium on the street-level main concourse, the bas-relief sculpture marks the gateway for a stadium visitor's trip through the history of the Chicago Bears.

Pure and simple, he loved this game that was as uncluttered and uncompromising as he was. Its requirements were courage, endurance, self-discipline and a competitive spirit. These were his prerequisites, too.

His teams played the game the same way he did- tough, aggressive and smart.

Often graced by a running back of exceptional ability, the Bears were always marked by a punishing defense that never stopped coming at you.

George Halas was a founder of the NFL and a pioneer of the Chicago Bears. His devotion to both over the decades helped them grow to prominence.

We will always remember his energy, his joy in competing, and his passion for his beloved Bears and Bear fans.

--bas-relief inscription

Artist Description:

The bas-relief is a time-line describing George Halas' contribution to the world of football and the history of the Chicago Bears.

Hall of Famers date back from the 1920's when George Halas founded the Chicago Bears, and represent different decades of team history.

The tremendous energy and influence of the two large George Halas reliefs tells the story and balances all of the action. George S. Halas is without doubt the overriding presence in the sculpture.

The laser-etched imagery shows the team in the 1920's - also Halas and his team celebrating a 1940's win against the Washington Redskins, fan images from Wrigley Field, a photo of Halas with George Jr. and Paddy Driscoll, and a fan grouping from the 1980's. Integrated in the composition is the famous "T" formation that George Halas invented.

THE BEARS DEN

Located on the lower concourse of the west grandstands, the Bears Den offers a dramatic, visual walk through Chicago Bears history.

THE DOUGHBOY STATUE

Just inside Gate O in the Grand Concourse stands the restored Doughboy Statue. Originally installed in Chicago's Garfield Park in the early 1930s, four decades later it was damaged, debased, but not forgotten. Chicago sculpture conservator Andrzej Dajnowski meticulously recast the missing parts and refurbished the entire statue and base to its original condition and it joins the other memorials to the American fighting men and women at Soldier Field.

THE RING OF HONOR

Chicago Bears Hall of Fame greats are honored on the mezzanine level Ring of Honor. The 26 Chicago Bears enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, are the most of any team in the NFL.

THE MEMORIAL WATER WALL

The Memorial Water Wall, a 280-foot long wall of polished green granite with eight medallions honoring the different branches of the armed services, flanks the walkway that leads into the north entrance of the stadium. A veil of water continuously flows over the sculptured memorial.

SOLDIER FIELD

The Chicago Bears moved into Halas Hall at Conway Park on March 3, 1997. The 38-acre complex is located in Lake Forest off of Route 60 just east of the Tri-State Tollway, approximately four miles from the former Halas Hall. The building is dedicated to Bears' founder, president and coach George Halas. The original Halas Hall, on the Lake Forest College campus, was dedicated by coach Halas in the name of his son, Mugs, in 1979.

The complex includes a 100,000-square foot office building, indoor practice facility and 2 1/2 outdoor practice fields, surrounded by a jogging path. One of the two 100-yard outdoor fields is equipped with 14 miles of underground heating tubes, enabling the grass to remain soft and growing into early winter, as well as five miles of drain tubing that can capture and disperse nine inches of rainfall per hour and 2.5 miles of cooling pipes for the grass roots.

The main building is almost two football fields long and 100 feet wide. The old Halas Hall had 32,000 square feet of space, while the new building has 100,000. In fact, the entire former Halas Hall would fit into the basement of the new building. Furthermore, the old locker room was 1,400 square feet, while the new one is about 3,000, has 62 lockers with room to quickly expand to 100, and four natural light wells. The weight room—perhaps the most spectacular aesthetic area of the complex—is 7,000 square feet, almost four times the size of the 1,800 square foot workout area at the old building. The glass wall on the east side of the weight room is 28 feet high, perfect for viewing the white-tailed deer on their evening romps across the complex grounds. A two-lane lap pool is behind the weight room and its sixty-foot lanes have built-in resistance currents. The training room is five times the size of its predecessor and boasts a doctor's office, x-ray facility, medical records storeroom, casting room, whirlpool, cold-dip plunge, steam room and sauna. The football needs are met with eight classrooms, two large meeting rooms/classrooms, and a 150-seat auditorium capable of hosting seminars, television productions and press conferences.

ED McCASKEY MEMORIAL GARDEN AND THE WALTER PAYTON CENTER

The team's indoor practice facility, the Walter Payton Center, was renovated during the summer of 2005 while construction of the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden was completed in June, 2005.

The Walter Payton Center is a rigid structure, opposed to the inflated "bubble" the team used from 1990-96, and includes a full 100-yard field. The structure is 85 feet high, 200 feet wide and 400 feet long. The renovation included removal of the existing fabric roof and cladding on the outside of the building, replacement of the end walls and installation of a new, state-of-the-art synthetic turf and two-lane running track. A new heating and de-humidification system was also installed.

Located south of Halas Hall, the Ed McCaskey Memorial Garden is a beautifully landscaped, clover-leaf shaped garden bordered by a 30" stone seat wall and piers. A winding gravel road from Halas Hall leads to the opening of the garden where a variety of trees, shrubs and perennials have been planted.

In memory of Brian Piccolo, each season since 1970 a Bears rookie has been honored with the Brian Piccolo Award. In 1992, the award was expanded to include a veteran as well. The Piccolo Award is a special honor voted on by Bears players only, who select a teammate they feel best exemplifies the courage, loyalty, teamwork, dedication and sense of humor of the late Brian Piccolo.

In all, 52 different Bears have won the award including eight on the current roster: Alex Brown (2002), Matt Forte (2008), Tommie Harris (2004), Devin Hester (2006), Olin Kreutz (2003, '04 and '06), Greg Olsen (2007), Charles Tillman (2003 and '08) and Brian Urlacher (2000 and '07).

Brian Piccolo signed with the Bears as a free agent out of Wake Forest in 1965-the same year Hall of Famer Gale Sayers was drafted. The two became roommates, and Piccolo's support of Sayers through a devastating knee injury, as well as Sayers' devotion when Piccolo was stricken with cancer in 1969, became the stuff of legend. Piccolo was in his fourth season when a chest x-ray revealed a malignancy. Several months later on June 16, 1970, he died at age 26 from embryonal cell carcinoma.

Following his death, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund was established and proceeds were sent to the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York for research on embryonal cell carcinoma. At the time Piccolo died, the disease was 100% fatal, but today the cure rate is more than 50%.

With that victory, proceeds from the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund now benefits breast cancer research at Rush Medical Center and provides support to the Clearbrook Center for the developmentally disabled in Arlington Heights.

Since turning its attention to the fight against breast cancer, the Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Fund, as well as all those who have generously joined in its efforts, has raised over $8 million for research since 1991. The fund remains active and welcomes the interest of contributions of others who share its commitment to breast cancer research and to the memory of Brian Piccolo.

4th Phase:

The first phase provides the offense. The second phase brings the defense. The third phase is truly "special." But the Fourth Phase makes it all matter.

Bears Fans are the 4th Phase and they provide the inspiration for everything the organization does, on and off the field. They motivate and inspire. They strongly express their opinions. They bring the noise to the city on Bears Sundays. In the stadium, at home or in a packed bar, cheering along with millions of others. They are the lifeblood of the Chicago Bears.

When the opponent steps onto the field, they don't just face a team. They face a city.

Wins are celebrated – losses, agonized. But always as one team.

JEFF JONIAK: One of the more energetic and exciting voices of the National Football League, Jeff Joniak enters his ninth season behind the microphone as the play-by-play voice of the Chicago Bears. One of the team's strongest players, Thayer earned his starting role at right guard four games into the 1985 season and eventually compiled consecutive game and consecutive start streaks that led the Bears during the late 1980s. Thayer left the Bears in 1992 after a distinguished eight-year career at offensive guard. He retired in 1993 after one season with the Miami Dolphins. Before joining the Bears radio team in 1997, Thayer worked for two years as a Bears analyst on WFLD-TV's pro football programming. A former all-state lineman at Joliet Catholic High, Thayer resides in Chicago.

The Chicago Bears Football Club is dedicated to making a difference in our community. Our organization inspires positive change and enriches the lives of others through outreach programs, initiatives, and partnerships. We are proud to give back to the community that has supported us since 1920.

Our organization implements and supports myriad community programs, which are focused primarily in the areas of education, health and fitness, youth football, and volunteerism and civic involvement. These programs reach and impact thousands of individuals, children and families each year.

EDUCATION

The Chicago Bears recognize the importance of offering and supporting educational programs for children from grade levels kindergarten through high school. Whether teaching children to read, encouraging them to become better citizens, or discussing life experiences, our desire is to instill a characteristic vital to their development – hope. Children are our future, and an educated child equates to a brighter future.

HEALTH AND FITNESS

Maintaining good health has always been a top priority for the Chicago Bears in achieving success both on and off the football field. With childhood obesity rates on the rise, the Bears have devoted a significant amount of programming to helping children realize the importance of daily exercise and healthy eating habits. We also continue to support those affected by illness or disability, and we are committed to helping people attain personal fulfillment and happiness.

PLAY 60

Play 60 is the NFL's youth health and fitness campaign. Designed to help tackle childhood obesity, Play 60 focuses on making the next generation of kids the most active and healthy by encouraging them to get at least 60 minutes of physical activity every day. The fundamental message of Play 60 is: Get Up and Play, an Hour a Day!

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Today's youth football players are the NFL stars of tomorrow. The Chicago Bears have always taken an active role in offering and supporting a variety of youth football programs and opportunities throughout Chicagoland. Through the Chicago Bears Youth Football Camps, tackle and flag leagues, skills development clinics and junior training camps, our goal remains the same – to encourage children to play football.

VOLUNTEERISM & CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

Hands-on volunteerism is one of the most fulfilling and rewarding ways to give back to the community. The Chicago Bears understand the importance of finding the time to actively make a difference in the lives of people who are most in need. We implement and support a wide variety of programs that encourage not only Bears players, coaches and staff, but entire communities, to join together to help deserving individuals, children and families throughout Chicagoland.

TEAM INITIATIVES & AWARDS

In addition to the support that our players provide to the Bears outreach programs and events, many generous players give back to the community through their individual efforts as well. Player initiatives include mentoring programs, monetary donations and fundraisers. The Chicago Bears administer awards and recognition programs that honor and distinguish our many players who actively give back to the community.
